

HENNESSY BLACK
Created from 35 to 45 varieties of Eaux-de-Vie and aged at least five years in French oak casks, Hennessy's smooth new blend is particularly well suited for cocktails. €33, hennessy.com

CICLOTTE It may resemble a 19th-century penny farthing, but the Ciclotte is anything but old-fashioned. Using carbon, steel and glass fibres, along with a patented epicycloids transmission system, the Italian Lamiflex Group has made the most of Luca Schieppati's design: think fitness equipment meets furniture accessory. From €6,972, ciclotte.com

ART ON WHEELS

With some two million Swarovski crystals embedded by hand over the course of four years, this 1960s Rolls-Royce will put a sparkle in anyone's eye. To top it off, 100% of the proceeds will be donated to a charity providing aid to Africa. For more info, contact Stefan.Ehgartner@trademarkpr.com

The BLACKLIST
An array of onyx-hued options for the eclectic collector

AUDREY
Using an aeronautical-grade composite, which is then hand-clad with mosaic, Italian fabricator SICIS's oversized tubs blend masculine materials with feminine forms. €15,800, sicis.it

SESTO ELEMENTO Envisioned to weigh just under 1,000 kilograms, Lamborghini's carbon-fibre concept will rocket from 0-100kph in just 2.5 seconds, thanks to its 570hp V10 and ultra-light angular body. lamborghini.com

ST DUPONT The sleek UltraJet lighter from the renowned French manufacturer. €180, st-dupont.com

PHOTOS CLOCKWISE FROM TOP RIGHT: EZIO MANCIUCCA, © SICIS, JEAN-LUC DRIGOUT, © LAMBORGHINI, STEFAN BRAUN, © HENNESSY